Re: GCA Update

Dear Brothers and Sisters;

I would like to update you on the current situation. NJ Transit has made no attempt to discuss or address any of the issues listed in my letter dated May 31, 2019 RE: GCA report.

The carrier is preoccupied with the current rollover on June 16th. The carrier is extremely worried that many if not all engineers will take their contractual 48 hours off before making a pick. They are also concerned that engineers will wait for the last minute to inform the crew callers whether they want to stay on their current assignment. I would remind all BLET members who wait till the last minute to decide, you may not be able to get in contact with the crew callers due to the volume of calls. If this should happen please call the voice mail and leave a message with your name, employee number and whether you want to remain on your assignment or the assignment you would like to pick.

Very truly yours,

James P. Brown
